Buildings on Fossum Farm, Beloit Township, Destroyed. Five cows, four hogs and two horses were burned alive, several thousand bushels of grain and a large quantity of hay were destroyed in a fire which razed two large barns on the Fossum farm, 12 miles southwest of Janesville, Thursday night, causing a loss of $10,000. A hog house, milk house and wooden silo burned. The blaze broke out shortly before 8 o'clock, lighting up the skies for miles, being visible as far north as Janesville. It continued burning until after midnight, with a bucket brigade and the Beloit fire department working to prevent its spread to smaller buildings adjoining. A strong west wind, saved the house from being destroyed, it being located to the south of the barns. The origin of the fire was not determined. It had obtained a good start when discovered and farmers were helpless in trying to stop it. One cow was saved. The farm is located in the northwest corner of Beloit township near the Beloit-Madison road, six miles from Beloit and six miles from Atkinson. The Beloit fire department was delayed in reaching the farm when the big truck stalled on a hill. The farm was tenanted by a Mr. Luckey who moved from Beloit last spring.

Moore, highway commissioner, at $4,000 a year after a vote in which not a negative vote was cast. The office of assistant highway commissioner, which has been held by Mrs. C. E. Moore, was abolished. Until the raise the commissioner received $2,400 and his wife was assistant, a total of $3,000 for both offices. "There is no question but what Mr. Moore is entitled to $5,000 a year for the efficient work and the importance of his office," declared Mr. P. Richardson, Janesville, who read the committee report. The increase was made effective for a period starting January 1, 1923. Reject Taylor Bills. The county board also made it plain that it was tired of year and year bills, which were usually have, the office of E. A. Taylor, supervisor of assessments, which the state under the law should pay. Supervisor L. A. Markham, Janesville, moved that the bills submitted for printing and supplies be rejected. This board so acted. "The law provides that after the county has furnished an office and equipment, which we usually have, the state must pay the current expenses of the office," advised Markham. "Then let the state pay the bills—not the county and let it be a permanent law." The board accepted further bills that the state is obliged to pay. It is not our grief they are short of money. The most of the business transacted by the supervisors, Thursday morning, was of a minor character, committee reports and the allowing of claims. The board accepted a report of $13,775.20 expended and a balance of $3,624.76, with the following allowances made: $5,224.46, salary of C. E. Moore, highway commissioner; $1,855.14, salary of E. A. Taylor, supervisor of assessments; and small amounts for the county clerk, auditor, and other officers. The building committee, acting upon the request of the farmers and breed organizations, charged quarters, the local committee will have a total floor space of more than 50,000 square feet, enabling it to produce $200,000 worth of manufactured products per month and to employ more than 200 men and women. ## FOLLIES GIRLS—THEY WED—BUT STAY NOT SO

As a matrimonial bureau P. Ziegfeld's Follies is without a doubt one of the greatest and most efficient organizations extant, but—and it's but spelled with a capital B-U-T—when it comes to permanent union, well, its batting average is a little lower than the mercury in an Eskimo's thermometer on a windy day. Geneva Mitchell labored under the marital yoke for just a week. Peggy Davis' husband, Donald Grafton, disappeared and left Peg—a grass-widow in less than three weeks. Peggy Udell's romance didn't last that long. Jessie Reed tried it twice and the second war worse than the first. And Helen Lee Worthing again is reporting regularly at the stage entrance.

NEGLIGEE IS ALWAYS GOOD FOR HIS GIFT TO HER

There are a lot of brothers, sweethearts and husbands who are wondering what to give for this year and it is certain that a pretty negligee would be the gift perfect. There is no need for the timid man to feel shy about buying one of these robes either, for almost every shop now has its Christmas shopping department where men are given special attention by clerks who know just what a wife or mother would want. Here are three styles, rather elaborate, but all the dearest to the feminine heart for that very reason. Fur trims the velvet robe at the left, while lace is the more appropriate trimming for the two satin and chiffon gowns.

WOMAN "PITCHER" SEEKS TO REGAIN NATIONAL HONORS

Mrs. J. F. Francisco, pitching.

When America's best horseshoe pitchers gather in St. Petersburg, Fla., the week of Feb. 19, Mrs. J. F. Francisco of Columbus, former woman's national champion, will seek to regain her lost honors.

Mrs. Gladys Scarborough Hart.

Love laughs at locksmiths and immigration laws and officials as well. Ellis Island authorities held Mrs. Gladys Scarborough Hart, English bride of a sailor on the U. S. S. Utah, but the said job just naturally prove his citizenship and the officials had to release her and allow her to enter the country.

OIL CRAZE RIVALS GOLD CRAZE OF '49

California Developing Several Fields, Writes Janesville Woman.

"The topic of oil in California is an absorbing one today and its history is nearly as thrilling as in the days of gold in '49," writes Mrs. Abbie Grims, Janesville club-woman and writer, who is spending the winter on the west coast with Mr. Holmes, writing from Ocean Park, Cal., she says: "People have grown rich overnight or have lost all they had in the mad speculation on oil stock. We might mention the case of a laboring man whose income is $1,200 a day, royalty from a producing well in his back yard and another whose life-time savings were invested in a dry hole. "Perhaps the most spectacular of the half-dozen or more fields being worked in California today are those of Santa Fe Springs, about 18 miles southeast of Los Angeles, and Signal Hill, just out of Long Beach. Both of these fields have been opened within the last two years and each have 200 to 300 wells about 25 percent of which are producers. The Signal Hill wells are so close to the beach that instead of oil, which is being used for domestic purposes, and this, together with the municipal-owned oil wells is quite liable to make Long Beach a fancy city in a short time. With the industrial development of Los Angeles harbor at San Pedro and the oil industry, Long Beach has grown to be a bustling city of 100,000 people and its living accommodations are strained to the utmost, so that tourists find few places at their disposal.

Businessmen After Tourists
"It is amusing to see the efforts made to persuade tourists to invest in oil stock. They are offered free rides to the prospective oil fields, free dinners, and smooth-tongued speakers line them up and tell them of the riches awaiting them if they will only invest. One peculiar feature of the game is that a dry hole may be found without a few rods of a gusher and that part of the fields are on high ground and part or low, so that there are no hard and fast rules to determine the location of the producing fields. It is a good deal of a gamble for so far the normal producing wells are in a majority.

"Los Angeles is growing by leaps and bounds. New additions are being opened daily and houses are going up on every hand. Everything in labor circles is open shop and the movement is made to that there has never been a strike to hold up building operations. The L. W. W. has been closely watched by the officials and so far has not cut much figure.

"The city limits of Los Angeles have been extended for miles in every direction, taking in many smaller towns so that they may have use of the water from the Los Angeles aqueduct.

Weather Is Ideal
"The weather so far this winter has been ideal with only a week or two of rain and the prospecting time to break the long spell of sunshine. Ranchers were much pleased to get the rain as it started all vegetation and now the hills and valleys are covered with a coat of green. Flowers are in bloom and barefoot children and bathers are enjoying the ocean beaches.

"Ocean Park is part of the city of Santa Monica and the municipal auditorium, costing $375,000 is located on the beach at this point. A municipal band of 20 players will play every day in the year. On the Saturday before Christmas in this auditorium were held the community Christmas exercises, when 6,000 children were assembled as guests of the city. There was a 30-foot tree erected on the floor of the auditorium, strung with 200 electric lights. A program of songs was given by 150 children under the direction of the Santa Monica women's club, and all the children were presented with a box of candy by Santa Claus.

"The Santa Monica women's club is a flourishing organization of 600 members owning their own club house, and they hold a prominent position in all civic matters.

THE BLOODY HAND OF THE KU KLUX KLAN.
In the days of the real Ku Klux Klan—the organization headed by that ignorant and yet active commander of Confederate cavalry, Nathan Bedford Forrest, of Memphis—negroes were whipped, whites terrorized and local government taken over by force. Later, when the Klan had been in existence for a year, it fell into hands of criminals and mountebanks. At first its ranks were made up of the chivalry of the south—veteran confederate soldiers and leading southern men who were sworn to fight carpetbag rule and negro domination in politics and government. The carpet-bagger, some northern man, generally a political lame duck, often an unscrupulous adventurer, was given an office here and there by appointment and afterwards as a new citizen, having gained residence, was elected to legislative and county offices by negro votes. The carpetbagger was often a plunderer and connived with the recently emancipated and constitutionally made citizen to rob and exploit the state or county. In many cases, the Ku Klux Klan felt justified, in the interest of white government and honesty of administration, to act as history records. But toward the close of its official career it fell into evil hands. Men rode in white robes only to pillage and rob and carry out personal revenge. So Gen. Forrest disbanded the Ku Klux and it died as an official organization. Yet it did not die; it went on in its work of crime against peace and good order and achieved that disgrace with which it has been clothed in northern prisons for fifty years and passed out in the contempt and anathema of decent people for the unholy Empire.
One might understand how a revival of the old Klan, with its spirit of the Old South, its traditions and its enemies, its intolerance and its appeal to the imagination as chronicled in story and photographed by Griffith in "The Birth of a Nation," could be welcomed by some of the southerners.
But how any northern man could for a moment look upon it kindly or participate in its numnerous acts is an exhibit of a strange human phenomenon.
In the north there is no excuse that the negro needs to be put in his place. Some may have joined because of its opposition to Catholics, but under the changed code of "principles" Catholics are to be admitted, so even that excuse is taken away. There yet remains the Jew upon whom the Klan puts the gypsy curse, but he is certainly not endangering the republic or so behaving as to warrant any propaganda against him, or laws to restrain him. In the south, with its regularly organized outrages, where mobs are a casual thing and organized posses chase negroes several times a year in most any community, there was less of the innovation about the new Klan than in the north.
Let it be put down as a principle, that any organization outside the regularly constituted and elected government as provided in the statutes, is a menace; and having as a part of its plan and ritual the punishment of either individuals or groups, is then, an enemy of good order, of law, and of society.
There can be no legal objection, no matter how much one might be opposed to it, for the Klan to enter politics, give support to candidates and attempt to capture public office through the legally constituted machinery of the polls.
It is one thing for the Klan to present and support candidates in elections and another to drag men out and tar and feather them, to beat them to death and to outrage all government.
To return to the southern aspect of the Klan.
Not only is it un-American there but it has proved itself an organized criminal. There it has been accused of murder several times, but until the frightfulness and red handed outrage of Mer Rouge in Louisiana was exposed and daily is disclosed as more black and horrible, we have no specific proof of Klan participation.
The most terrible wars of all times have been the wars of religion. The most frightful of the world's outrages have been committed by race against race. The world is upset today because men cannot dwell together in peace in Europe with political boundaries embracing more than one race. Any organization fostering religious prejudice and stirring up race antagonism is a menace to the peace and happiness of America.
defiant of all its traditions, a blot on its constitution and a disgrace to its Declaration of Independence.
Hundreds have joined the Klan in a spirit of jeffery. But it has come to be serious and every northern man who has any remembrance of what the Ku Klux Klan meant in its origin will do well

Conditions of American Farming

By FREDERICK J. HASKIN

Washington. The enigma of why American farming cannot survive under present conditions, although the prices of foodstuffs are higher today than they were in any pre-war year, is not the only topic dealt with in the report of the joint commission which investigated the agricultural crisis. The report itself constitutes a broad survey of farming as it is at present conducted and as such it makes clear what a change has come over the business of food production during the past 20 years.

One prime characteristic of farming today is its increased and increasing use of fertilizer. The virgin soil of the nation that once produced a heavy series of crops year after year and seemed inexhaustible in its richness, has at length worn out. Not even manures and the retention of crops can sustain its productivity. Fertility has to be added, and it must be added in the form of commercial fertilizers.

At the beginning of the present century the farmers of America, and principally those of the older states east of the Mississippi, were buying commercial fertilizers at the rate of about $54,000,000 in value each year. In 1919 they spent nearly $230,000,000. Twenty years ago not $4,000,000 a year was spent for fertilizers by farmers west of the Mississippi River; in 1919 the farmers of that region spent approximately $27,000,000. The Pacific states are using nine times as much fertilizer now as they did then. These figures are evidence of the exhaustion of the soil.

The hired man on the farm gets better pay than he used to. His wages now, figuring in his board as part of the pay, are about three and one-half times what they were in 1898. It is costing farmers today nearly four times as much to feed their livestock, as it did only 10 years ago.

In 10 years the farms of the nation have doubled in value, due to the increasing cost of land. The average farm in 1910 was valued at $6,471. The present value of the average farm is $10,514, while the total present farm value is close to $68,000,000,000. This represents an increase of about $32,000,000,000. On this increased value interest must be paid, and the greater difficulty of making the farm pay as an investment is one of the things which is embarrassing our farming.

Although in 20 years there has been a great increase in the use of farm machinery, the crop production does not indicate that machinery is increasing production. It is permitting fewer men to operate the farms, but it is not sending the farm output ahead of the increase in population. Yet, as farm labor grows harder and harder to secure, the tendency is toward a greater and greater use of machinery. This is another indication which points to higher food prices in the future.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

SLAVE.

I know that I'm supposed to be
An independent man and free,
Here where the flags of freedom wave
Newman need struggle as a slave.
And yet this black man's a slave,
A bound and fettered self I am;
Humble and meek and chained of limb,
I serve a little tyrant's whim.

What matters it that I would "lead?"
She would go prancing on her steed,
And I'm the horse upon whose back
She'd gallop. Should the pace grow slack,
This little monarch knows just what
Will bring me to the faster trot.
And though my poor old body tires,
I wait to serve her next desires.

I that am awkward, dance about
The steps she says I ought to put,
I that possess no voice to sing,
Chant many a long forgotten thing.
To please her fancy, or I crawl,
Bear-like, about the room and hall.
Here is a tyrant absolute,
Who masquerades as sweet and cute.

This monarch on a self-made throne
Lays wild claim to all I own,
My life goes as she says the word,
My fate hangs on her hand and sword.
Then I jump to throw up what I can,
Would I'd down and close my eyes—
Not if she wills it otherwise!
Freedom, no more is mine to claim,
I rest it when the baby came.

ALL WOMEN

What asks one of them, causes them to unduly brood on one's face? I have had them for years. I asked my doctor what I could do to remove them and he suggested rubbing lemon on them. He then said all women were subject to them.

And another of their remarks in the course of her complaint about pain: "I know all women suffer some way or other."

If the doctor said all women "suffer" he was not saying the matter of fact a great many women have no such spots.

If the young woman-fancies that all women suffer some way or other her education is not as healthy and fact most healthy women suffer not at all.

Good, honest instruction in education concerning sex is unfortunately taboo in most homes. And so our young women must pick up what crumbs they can find. Some of the ideas that young women acquire are positively frightful, and most cruel.

One of the most common of these is that all women do not get their periods. Not all women do. Some women do not get their periods as regularly as men do.

Oh, there are plenty of men too lazy to understand. As I say, men often have brown spots.

The spots are insignia of toxemia—poison accumulated in the blood. Maybe it will sound less alarming to you if I make the matter a bit more understandable, please, that it has nothing to do with regularity of intestinal evacuation. Just some of the half-burned ideas of our young women are that toxemia is too slow, oxidation or combustion incomplete, blood withdrawn from circulation and stagnated in the great epinephrine pool.

Each the liver is the seat of the pool, but the liver isn't to blame for the stagnation, mind.

So far as retaining the stagnant blood to oxidize it, the liver is not to blame. The liver is the seat of the pool, but the liver isn't to blame for the stagnation, mind.

HIGH RATE FOR WORK

Niagara Falls, Ont.—Welland county officials are worrying about a double hanging which is set to take place in the county jail. No official hangman has yet been engaged. In response to a recent advertisement, several applications were filed, but the fees demanded, ranging from $200 to $300, were considered too high. In the past, officials said, $50 was sufficient to get a man to fasten the black cap on a condemned man and spring the trap.

A great inventor once there was
Who gained renown both far and nigh;
An alchemist he invented that Could do most anything but fly.

He then got up a patent gun
Designed to make an army scout.
He tried it out. The only thing
That gun could not do was to shoot.

He never got discouraged but
He built a dandy new lifeboat.
It proved to have just one defect:
His fine invention wouldn't float.

He worked upon a touring car.
It was ten years as he was done.
It proved a peach. The only thing
About it was, it wouldn't run.

Discouraged, he from science turned;
He seemed to think he had no chance.
He had a happy thought one day,
And he invented a new dance.

HOROSCOPE

FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1923

Conflicting planetary influences are discovered by your astrologer, who find that while Jupiter is friendly, Mars is again inimical.

The early hours of the morning should be favorable to commercial activities and should promote initiative. There is a sign encouraging to self-esteem and confidence, and a certain what psychologists and prevalent at this time.

Both men and women who have attained public office of any sort may find that their position is somewhat precarious and conscious of what seems personal satisfaction.

The stars today do not give promise of anything like a satisfactory condition of world affairs.

Students of human relations will find that the study of the sciences emphasized next month, is prophetic.

Men will pay much attention to dress and to what have been declared minor interests of life, while this rule of the planets prevails, their vanity will be accentuated by the stars.

As fashion decrees more "sensitive" modes for women, it is foretold that men will adopt bizarre clothing, or at least, startling accessories to their garb.

Generous legacies to community enterprises, especially to community theaters, are prophesied.

The configuration today is read as particularly helpful to all efforts that require, slow, patient, plodding men to make them successful.

The new year promises more to those who progress slowly by means of quiet and persistent industry than to those who depend on brilliant strokes of business.

Speculative enterprises should be avoided at this time, but there will be an unusual number of lures for investors.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of devotion to practical affairs. They should not make any radical changes.

Children born on this day are subjects of Capricorn and should be endowed with strong mentality. Industrious and reliable, they have all the requisites of success. One of their good qualities probably will be a talent for making their own affairs.

Who's Who Today

GEN. SIR CEDRIC FREDERICK NEVILL MACREADY.

General Sir Cedric Frederick Nevill Maccready is the name most familiar to Americans which appears on the New Year's honors list of Great Britain this year. For his efforts to make the "black and tan" a military machine dominating Ireland General Maccready has been made a baronet. And the reward comes in spite of the fact that his efforts were in vain.

Maccready was born in May, 1862. He was educated at Marlborough and Cheltenham. He became a lieutenant of the Gordon Highlanders in 1881 and then rose in the ranks to captain, major, lieutenant-colonel, colonel, major-general, and during the recent war, became general. He served in Egypt and South Africa and was mentioned in dispatches several times.

General Maccready was a member of the British Expeditionary Force until 1919. In 1918 Maccready was a member of the army council.

Maccready is married and is a member of the Garrick and Authors Clubs.

"CARRY ON!" IS WOMEN'S SLOGAN

Disappointed in Sanatorium Vote but Not Through, Says Mrs. Munger.

When asked by a Gazette reporter how she felt about the adverse action of the county board on the sanatorium bond proposition, Mrs. Percy Munger, chairman of the sanatorium committee of the County League of Women, said that the women, while disappointed, have no intention of abandoning the fight.

"We shall continue our educational work in the county, and if the matter isn't settled before that time, we will make it an issue in the next election of supervisors," she declared. I sympathize with the farmers and in the financial affairs of the county, but believe the cost of a sanatorium could be saved by cutting down other expenditures which are of less importance to the welfare of the people. It is poor economy to keep putting off the building of a sanatorium because the number of tubercular persons is constantly increasing under present conditions.

"I am heartily in favor of the campaign to eradicate the tubercular disease but this will not solve the problem, so long as persons having the disease continue to spread it by remaining in their homes and mixing with people in their communities, because of our failure to provide sanatorium care. If the sanatorium had been built ten years ago or even five years ago, the tubercular population would have been far less. Each year's postponement increases the outlay that will be necessary in the end, to say nothing of the humanity of this procedure."

2-Piano Concert

Is Novelty Here

Guy Maier and Lee Pattison, appearing at the Congregational church Friday night under the auspices of the Apollo club, will offer a variety of entertainment never heard here before. They will offer a program of selections on two pianos, with not a solo during the evening.

The two young men, who entered this field in 1916 as the first ones to do so, are both of such a high class musically that it has been proven their decision was no mistake. Audiences where they have appeared enthusiastically hail the two as offering something new in the concert field, the novelty of which, however, does not detract in the least from the excellence of the concert from a musical point of view.

The concert is being given under the auspices of the Apollo club as the second concert of the season. A committee is selling tickets, which may also be obtained at several downtown stores. They are said to be selling well and a full auditorium is expected. Mrs. F. O. Holt heads the ticket committee; Mrs. J. M. Whitehead, the publicity; and E. J. Haumerson, the ushers.

Three Mail Boxes

Broken in Year

Chief damage to mail boxes on the streets of this city comes from automobile accidents, according to Postmaster F. J. Connelley. He says that citizens are careful not to damage or spoil the appearance of the boxes.

Auto accidents last year broke three box poles, doing only a little damage to the boxes. Two of the poles were replaced by the government, while the motorist was found at fault in the other case and made to pay $5 for the pole.

Boxes are painted each year at an annual cost of $16, says Mr. Connelley. This cost of paint and other supplies made by matches, or any other marks on the poles. It is seldom that one is dented or damaged as the law and penalty for tampering with them is printed on each box.

Many other cities report large expenditures each year, because of the damage done boxes by citizens.

ELECTRICITY USED

EXTENSIVELY TO GET HENS TO LAY

Information on a variety of subjects was named out by Postmaster Haskin of the Gazette Information Bureau at Washington, D. C., this past week to inquirers.

"The poultry division says that electric light is used to great deal for egg production during the slack months," says Mr. Haskin in answering one inquiry. "It enables one to get hens to lay during the fall and winter months when prices of eggs are very high. The lights are used in the early morning and evening, increasing the day from nine hours to approximately 13."

To another with many questions, he gave out much legal help by quoting the Minnesota law concerning the division of estates. To another he gave the addresses of seven firms dealing in oil burners.

The Evansville Woman's club, or the Evansville Table club, would be appropriate titles for such a club in Evansville, he told a woman writing from there.

A list of manufacturers of jig-saws was given, after explaining that the government is at present issuing no pamphlets on this subject, but that it is in the form of native alloys with the other platinum metals, Mr. Haskin explains. The principal districts in these areas are various districts in the United States and on the Pacific coast of this country.

Three magazine names were given to add some realism in the search for the effects of happiness on co-education.

The bureau sent out 29 free calendars during the week.

BOUTIN BOOKS NEW

RODOLPH PICTURE

Rodolph Young, the famous production, "The Young Rajah," has been booked by Manager Charles Boutin to play at the Myers theater four days, starting next Monday.

It is a story of an Indian prince, brought up in America, and is said to be one of the most elaborate Valentin has ever made, with dancing to be in progress from 9 until 3 o'clock.

Mr. Boutin has booked for Thursday, Jan. 25, the musical comedy "The Red Widow," with the original cast.

POLICEMEN'S BALL

TO BE HELD JAN. 30

Members of the police department have set Tuesday, Jan. 30, as the date for their sixth annual dancing party, the last one they will be able to give in the armory due to its being taken over by Leath's May 1. Hatch's seven-piece orchestra will furnish the music, with dancing to be in progress from 9 until 3 o'clock. The committee in charge is composed of Patrolmen James Ward, Charles Dickinson and Leo Lennartz.

Cities Display

Interest in New

Automobile Law

Such good is expected to come out of the conference of city officials and the legislative committee of the Wisconsin League of Municipalities held at Madison Wednesday afternoon, and attended by City Attorney Roger U. Cunningham, Janesville. The meeting was relative to state legislation affecting municipalities.

On his return home Mr. Cunningham said that the most important legislation discussed was the proposed reduction of automobile taxation, the national bank situation and the Peterson education bill.

A special committee of five of the league, with a special committee of the county board associated in to meet for a conference with the highway commission and the joint highway committee of the legislature as soon as the latter is organized to discuss the problem of the maintenance of highways, and the proposed automobile and gasoline tax bill.

Cities seem to be very much at sea as to what course to pursue in regard to taxation of national banks which have been declared exempt.

Mr. Cunningham said, "They seem to favor the plan of Milwaukee, which effected a compromise with the national banks whereby the latter paid the amount they would be subject to taxation under the income tax law."

It is understood that the two Janesville national banks have agreed informally to some compromise and fair deal with people of the city, although they are not required under existing laws to pay anything.

FINDS GAZETTE

ISSUED IN 1858

Sixty-four and a half years old, a well preserved copy of the Janesville Weekly Gazette and Free Press has just been found in an old trunk by J. W. Atkinson, 741 Yuba street. The copy was subscribed to by Lot Lamson and N. A. Swan, the former a great grandfather of Mrs. Atkinson, and the latter her grandfather. It had been kept by the late Mrs. Swan. The paper is of the issue of Saturday, June 12, 1858, and was No. 41 of volume 18. The printer was in the Exchange block. Charles Hoyt was publisher and Filmer Ebbesen editor. Among the advertisers was J. A. Sutherland & Company, book store, Lappin block.

LOCATE RELATIVE

OF DECEASED MAN

Joseph Black, former employee of the street department here, who died in a Waubesa hospital this week of pneumonia, has a sister living 20 miles east of Detroit, Mich., according to information obtained by the local police department and communicated to the sheriff's office at Waubesa. On his death bed the man refused to divulge the names of any of his relatives. He had been working for the Gordon Wrecking company at the Great Lakes Naval Training station.

MARRIED AT BRODHEAD

Brodhead—Miss Leola Grace Edwards, Belleville, and Oscar Olson, Brodhead, were married Monday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. O. Garfield Beckstrand, Rockford. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson, Brodhead, attended the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Olson will reside in Brodhead.

Time to Face the Facts

"So much has been said against the use of patent medicines that I have had a strong prejudice against them. But after four years' doctoring, six different doctors, without results for acute indigestion, gastritis, constipation, appendicitis and other ailments, I was said to possess, I was encouraged to try 'People's Wonderful Remedy,' seeing what it had done for a friend similarly afflicted. I also was entirely relieved of my trouble, and am sure this medicine will do all and more than I claimed for it. # Pussies Rout Cards, 23 to 13-Blues at Edgerton, Friday

Copyright 1920, by Geo. McManus

TOM CATS COMING FOR RETURN GAME HERE ON SATURDAY

With a good name, but little team work, the Madison Cardinals came to Janesville Thursday night and after a session of exciting entertainment returned to the university, hanging to the low end of a 23 to 13 score. They clashed with the pussies of the local Black Cats to find the claws widely extending.

There is one thing about individual work. Chief times it furnishes spectacular features that thrill the galleries. Thursday night's game was not lacking in that respect.

Outplay Madison. When it came to playing the game, the Cats had it all over the visitors. Practically all of the contest was played in the vicinity of the Madison basket, with the exception of a portion of the latter half. Madison was able to gather but four field goals, three of them in the second half when the local's took things easier, realizing they had the game sewed up.

There were flashes of brilliance throughout the battle, though the Cats were off somewhat of their usual team play, forced out of their style by hanging tactics of the Cards and a semi-circular five man defense.

Black Leading Star. Led by a wonderful floor game by Charlie Eick, who slipped swiftly between the Cardinal guards to receive the ball under the basket and "English" it through the hoop, the Cats dazed Madison in the first half. Not until near the close of the second period, did the Wisconsin men get a basket and that was a pot shot from beneath the cage by Foxton. However, the Cards wanted many of their shots, most of them ones-roll around the edges and drop out.

While this was going on, the Cats, out of countless tries, slammed the ball through for the count six times in the first half, one of the shots a perfect example of looping by Kalkuske. The speed of the opening quarters was so rapid, Black was included and his place taken by Capt. Lanphere, just recovering from a severe cold. Marvelously, the game became even faster when "Pete" entered and carried the Cats' lead marked by such hard playing, 11 fouls were called.

Tom Cats Saturday. At the start of the second half, with Chadwick constantly bothering his jump over Fern, Janesville members of the Cards, at center, the leather covered sphere was worked all over the floor with no scores until Black broke the ice after five minutes. Madison failed to ring up a tally in the third quarter, but in the fourth, as the Cats let down, they made eight points to three by Janesville.

Saturday, at 9:15 p. m., the Cats will play a second game of the season with the Rockford Tom Cats at the rink here. Beyond a doubt, fans will see the simplest and hardest game in years.

Summary: Black Cats (23) Madison Cards (13). Black, 11; Eick, 4; Kalkuske, 4; Chadwick, 4; Lanphere, 1; Foxton, 1. Cards: Foxton, 1; Eick, 1; Kalkuske, 1; Chadwick, 1; Lanphere, 1; Foxton, 1.

By FRANK SINGLAI

RETURN of Abel Kiviat to the long distance track means more than the desire of Abel to don running trunks again. It is an indication of the trend that seems ready to break. From indications, 1923 is going to be a year of stars and other notable. Practically with trainers, and practice without, is going on so rapidly it is hard to keep in touch with the possibilities.

LAST WEEK the writer was in Brooklyn, N. Y. The activity is greater in New York circles along these lines than for many years. The huge armories of the national guard in the greater city are the highly training quarters of hundreds of stars and other notable. Practically with trainers, and practice without, is going on so rapidly it is hard to keep in touch with the possibilities.

THE SAME scenes are taking place in other cities in the east. Chicago is beginning to liven up in the same fashion. The athletes at this time are training for the indoor season, pointing to the several sectional meets of the amateur athletic union. More than that they have the 1924 Olympic starting them in the race, which indicates another reason for a huge increase in this branch of sports.

IT will not be long before high schools in Wisconsin will be out of the turf training their lands for sectional meets and then for the growing state journey. The year of 1923 was an interesting advance over previous seasons among "young" schools in this division. It is safe to predict 1923 will be greater.

THERE is a new trend in track sports in Wisconsin, in fact, in the central west, and that is in the national guard and the American legion. Hero are two organizations that should be bucking the amateur to the limit. The Wisconsin national guard has sought in a way to start sports, but there has been no head or main operation. The American legion has had athletic officers in name, but nothing more. These are organizations whose men must be physically perfect, now or in the past, to be eligible for membership. Yet they sit back and look on.

Duluth hockey team beats Cleveland, 4-0; Milwaukee hockey team plays Pittsburgh Friday.

Scrum About Scramblers—$250,000 offered by Dempsey for Joe Goffett, but in London, Villard set in first workout in Gotham, but experts want to know if he will last. Bill Taylor completes practice to meet Pat Moore at Chicago Tuesday. Sammy Mandell, recovered from illness, starts final work for bout with Frankie Garcia at Chicago next Friday. Brennan in shape to meet Floyd Johnson at New York Friday.

University of Chicago to boost track and field sports by holding three meets for high schools.

Ruppert says White Sox-Yankees deal for Collins may come true.

Wisconsin and Northwestern clash on mat Friday.

BLACKHAWK CAGERS TRIM LYKE SPECIALS

The Blackhawk basketball team defeated Lyke specials at the high school Thursday night, 8 to 4. Lloyd and McGowan each made two baskets for the winners, while Lyke and Barkley made one apiece for the specials. Lineups:

Blackhawks—R. MacFarlane, rt.; W. McGowan, lf.; E. Lloyd, c.; K. McGowan, rt.; M. Mannors, rg.; M. Meyers, lg.

Lyke's Specials—A. Barkley, rt.; C. Lamb, lf.; V. Lyke, c.; V. Olson, rg.; G. Schimmel, lg.

GAZETTE "AD" MEN BEAT MACHINE CREW

In a game marked by heavy artillery, the "ad" men of the Gazette put one over on the linotype operators on the always Thursday, 24 to 27, a margin of 50 pins. Those on the team:

Ad Men—Neitzel, A. Knuth, Zrohm, Kueck, Helso.

Operators—Piro, Schultz, R. Knuth, Dixon, Schoonig.

FOX RIVER SCHOOLS SET FOOTBALL GAMES

Oshkosh.—Football schedules for schools in the Fox River valley conference have been arranged for 1923, the championship being arranged on a percentage basis. Inter-scholastic baseball and tennis for next summer are under consideration.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Blues, Edgerton Under Real Test Friday Night

Both first and second basketball teams of Janesville high school will appear on the floor at Edgerton Friday night in the first games of the new year. The contest between the regulars is to start at 8 p. m., that between the second at 7 o'clock.

Janesville's first team lineup will be practically the same that appeared against Milton Union. Austin and Meek will be at the forward posts. Tausend at center and Dickinson and Soeman, guards. Palmer, a new man who is coming good, will get in the game at forward. Leary may also play.

The battle will be the first real test of the season for each team. While the Blues are expected to have a reserve comeback that may surprise Edgerton has one man who has played four years.

Only eligible men are to appear in the game between the second teams. The players will leave here at 6:30 p. m., making the trip by automobile.

Offered Basket Meet, Janesville Cannot Accept

Offered one of the new districts of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic association's basketball tournament, Janesville high school is in a predicament. To properly accommodate the vast crowd it would be necessary to have seats in the gym at the new high school, but conditions are such it is not likely Janesville can accept.

A conference is to be held between local officials and Fred J. Holt, Edgerton, chairman of the state association, Friday night. Monroe has been offered the meet January 22, but has turned it down, not being in a situation to accept.

While plans are to install 1,200 collapsible seats in the new school gym here, finances will not permit so doing this year. Temporary chairs will have to be installed for the regular games of the Blues.

Lake Hits High, in Beating Fort

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.) Fort Atkinson.—Though they broke the wooden men for a 2,790 count and had a margin of 127 on grand total, Lake Mills was able to annex but two games from Fort Atkinson. In the Central State league Thursday night Fort's one victory was by 558 to 325. Six two hundred counts were made, Vandave of the Lake leading with 221 scores.

R. F. B.'s to Appear at Clinton Friday

Janesville's "Elvivors," the R. F. B. basketball team, rambled over to Clinton Friday night for a game which they look upon as one of the hardest of the year. They fear the small court upon which they will appear.

Clinton has the strongest team in recent years. However, the R. F. B. outfit is in better condition than last week.

Thursday night, the locals play the Parker Pen company in a practice session, players reporting at 7:15. The game is to be held at the high school.

A return game is expected with the Fond du Lac Cardinals here in February. Last week, the R. F. B. dropped to that organization.

Beloit Will Start Games This Week

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.) Beloit.—Can Beloit college repeat? This is the question that rings around the campus, but is felt doubtful of repetition. Last year Beloit won 11 straight games and the championship of the "Little Eight." Beloit has lost to DePauw, 22-18 in December.

Beloit has two conference games this week. Coach Mills' first is at Cornell, Mount Vernon, Ia., Friday night and at Coe, Cedar Rapids, Saturday.

Beloit's schedule:
Jan. 12—At Cornell.
Jan. 13—At Coe.
Jan. 14—At Carroll.
Jan. 15—At Knox.
Jan. 16—At Beloit.

Capt. Sayre Drops from Milton Five

MILTON.—Coach Crandall's Milton college five suffered another blow Thursday with the announcement Jerry Sayre, captain and guard, has retired from basketball for the remainder of the season. His resignation as captain was accepted by the student body in session Thursday.

Though no reason for Sayre's action was made public, it is generally understood on the campus that continued participation in sports would have interfered with his chances of graduating next June. Milton's next game will be with Platteville normal here Jan. 15.

NEWSBOYS BATTLE BROADHEAD FRIDAY

The Gazette newsboys basketball team will play at Broadhead Friday night. The novices are taking on a strong schedule with local and neighboring teams.

STOUGHTON LAD GETS RIFON FOOTBALL CUP

Brookfield.—Theodore Jerde, and Ralph Lawson, Walworth, are among the 20 men awarded football letters at Ripon college. Theodore Jerde, Stoughton, was given the silver loving cup for being the most useful football man.

MOOSE SHY? MOST, BUT NOT THIS ONE

Moose are among the most shy of all animals, shunning civilization. L. R. Boett, Minnesota forest ranger, who visited in Janesville recently and spoke before the Rotary club, ran into one last week that was different.

"Just came Saturday night," from a week's hunt or snow shoes in the north logging district," he writes. "I ran across quite a few moose and the deer are about as thick and tame as I have ever seen them. Covered with mud. The burn boss put a horse blanket around her and gave her a stalk, and fed her with hot bran mash. A moose is a very shy animal, and shuns all civilization, but in this case she fell in with good company."

"Going across a small lake, I came within 50 feet of a red fox digging something out of the ice. I saw a yell and brier Fox made his getaway with a 10-yard leap."

"I looked over several beaver workings, but the snow is pretty deep and besides the ice is water covered. I do not think I will attempt to do any trapping until early next spring."

"YW" Cagers Start Saturday Night

Basketball for the local Y. W. C. A. gets into swing Saturday night when the first team will play at Clinton high school. The "YW" has 16 dates on its schedule. Four of them are open, but will probably be filled with return games.

Schedule:
Jan. 12, at Clinton; Jan. 19, at Burlington; Jan. 23, Beloit college here; Jan. 27, at Sharon; Jan. 30, at Broadhead; Feb. 3, Elkhorn here; Feb. 10, Milton college here; Feb. 13, open; Feb. 16, Beloit, Y. ## Evansville High Preps for Union (SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.) Evansville.—The local high school basketball team will travel to Milton Saturday to meet Union high, reported stronger than last year. Stiff competition is probable.

The Evansville lineup is likely to be Capt. Burnum, c.; Cain, rt.; Roberts, lf.; Libby, rg.; Baker, lg.; James who played right guard in 1922, is expected to get into the fray. Many fans will go by auto.

Naft Causes Cow's Death
John G. Voss lost one of his valuable purchased cows within a week and the peculiar illness baffled the veterinarian. The put-mortem showed a nail four inches long, had gone through the stomach and when it pierced the heart, caused death. Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bonter, Wednesday, Jan. 10, a daughter named Delta Wilhmina.

Wilton Has Artist
The personnel of the Frank Holton company, from manager down, are an interesting men. Inventory week is supposed to be a slack time in the workmen's department, but not so with H. C. Voss, the expert engraver. He cleans up his room, makes new patterns and originates designs to be submitted to the company for the coming year and in order to cut out many duplicated designs, he makes an imprint of lead from the original pattern. Mr. Voss served four years touring the engraver's art and the scope of his work is the world—Mexico City, Moscow and Japan. He tells of an order from Texas to copy a design from a "horn engraver" which in the end included an eagle, American flag and head of Abraham Lincoln and the replica was reported to be superior to the best English engraving. His decorations of a coronet grand hall for the Rudolph Wulitzer company, received a medal award at the Panama exposition and he made an elaborate plate for a pipe organ presented by an American to a theological school in Baroda, India.

Visit Other Fire Departments
The Fire Commission for the new fire truck composed of six men from the council and fire department—Fred Voss, George Hutton, Alice Harrison, Bruce Harris, Eugene Kinney and Will Morrison visited Jefferson and Palmyra Thursday, inspecting trucks and watching demonstrations.

Join Abstract Company Force
Mrs. Alice Caspy and Miss Mercedes Hiles are recent additions to the Abstract Title and Guaranty company's force.

McNail to Talk Monday
Arrangements have been made for a meeting at the court house in Elkhorn at 8 p. m. Monday, at which E. McNail of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture will present the findings of the survey of 273 farms made in Walworth county a year and a half ago. The survey shows a strikingly why some of our farmers make money while others are losing. It is not due to the size of the farm, but some may think many valuable conclusions are to be drawn from this data. At a meeting, Dec. 22 Mr. McNail presented part of this material and those who were present were so much interested that they asked for this second meeting to have this data more fully explained and more definite recommendations given.

Among the Clubs
The 13-22 club postponed its regular meeting Thursday to be entertained Saturday night by the Misses Horsfield. The Cornfield club meets Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hertz, having the usual program with refreshments.

The Catholic Ladies' club met at Columbus hall Wednesday afternoon and 12 tables were entertained by the new officers: Mrs. Richard McGee, president; Mrs. John Thayer, secretary and Mrs. Thomas Pope, treasurer. There were six guests from Delavan.

Sixteen members of the Hoo-Moo club were entertained at the home of Miss Veronica Finley, West Rockwell

If I Were Job Hunting—

THE first thing I would do if I were job hunting would be to run a few lines in the "Situation Wanted" columns of the Janesville Gazette. Want and Section I would tell Janesville employers what I could do and what kind of work I wanted. This is the most direct line of fire in bringing down a job that I know of. Other job hunters have some job holders this way. I am sure the same plan would work for me.

Why One Advertising Appropriation Was Increased

TWO partners were debating their advertising policy—planning the campaign for the next six months.

Theirs is a retail store which spent in one year $12,000 on its advertising which was 5% of their yearly volume, a fair expenditure in their line of business.

In growth of sales they could easily point out the home-coming of the $12,000 with a fair and reasonable profit in its train. For these two partners that expenditure was a profitable short-term investment.

One of the partners spoke up:

"John," he said, "we have a cash profit in the bank from that $12,000, but we have a greater intangible profit by far—it is piled up for us in the minds of every man and woman in the city.

"It is reflected in the attitude of our bankers.

"It is present in the minds of the manufacturers who sell us.

"It is working on the minds and purses of every one of our customers.

"Why," he continued, "this business, because of the advertising we have done, is worth $12,000 more than it was before we began."

The two partners increased their appropriation, modestly, it is true. That was five years ago. Today, for it is in a large city, their appropriations is eight times their original amount. Their standing, with bankers, manufacturers and customers is A-1. Their business has grown and grown in a healthy way. And still as one of them put it—

"In the last five years advertising has made money for us. Every cent we've spent has come back to us, and brought another with it. But, our real profit—our big profit from that advertising is banked in the minds of the people. Ours is the best known business of its kind in town. And that is worth a lot of money to us."

MOORE APPEALS FOR SALARY BOOST

Highway Commissioner Says Five Under Him Get More Than $2,400

Showing a reluctance, to dispense with the reading of the annual reports of the county officers, feeling that only through hearing them could they keep in touch with what is being done in Rock county, the county board's Thursday afternoon session was partly taken up with the hearing of reports of the highway department, superintendents, clerks of court and the two police commissioners.

The board re-engaged Miss Anna Kauter as county nurse, leaving the county highway commissioner, Charles E. Moore, in his request for an increase in salary, make the startling statement that five men employed in the highway department and under his supervision receive more salary than he does.

Mr. Moore receives $2,400 a year and as a business proposition he asked that consideration be given an increase. The matter seemed to have the sympathy of the board, for it was immediately referred to the county committee and Supervisors Christian, Richardson and Morgan, acting with it as a special committee expected to report back next Monday.

The county highway commissioner brought up the salary question at the conclusion of his report when the board was considering the annual report showed that savings of $107,000 had been effected for Rock county in three years by the county doing part of its own concrete construction work.

"When I took this job I thought I would have a vacation for it was a small business when I went into it about 1910," Mr. Moore said. "But it has grown into a tremendous business and it has ceased to be a vacation and become a real job."

"I feel I must retain my self respect and those under me and so I make this as a business proposition," he said. "I served on the county highway committee from 1910 to 1912, when I took up the work of the department when he died, going into it because I was interested in it, but it has come to a point where I must have a right to exercise my common sense."

"Money is the inspiration of human effort and if I am not worth more to this county than some of the men who work for me I ought to get out and the county get a better man."

State Senator Bruce, in his frank talk to the board showed that Mr. Moore had been the pioneer in the state in the matter of building its own roads and had resulted in the establishment of a price list which will save the state millions of dollars for it showed what roads can be built for, resulting in a much lower figure from contractors. "There's a point where I must have a right to exercise my common sense," he said. "I feel I must retain my self respect and those under me and so I make this as a business proposition," he said. "I served on the county highway committee from 1910 to 1912, when I took up the work of the department when he died, going into it because I was interested in it, but it has come to a point where I must have a right to exercise my common sense."

Following the discussion of county officers reading their reports before the board, the board took up the matter of the new system of books was installed. He didn't give his name.

Antislavery Reports Received. In delivering his report, County Supt. D. D. Antislavery noted a remarkable improvement in the attitude of all in school matters which he said was a good sign. He declared the enrollment of the high schools in Rock county under his supervision to be the largest in history. He thanked J. C. Arnet, of the Rock county X. M. C. for the helplessness in school matters and Mrs. Florence S. Hyde, of the Gazette, for her helplessness in community matters.

James Butler read his annual report which has been covered by the review story in the Gazette last week.

$21,000 For Poor Relief. The northern district of Rock county required $23,000 more from the county for poor relief than the southern section, the reports of Supts. A. P. Anderson, of Janesville, and Neil Benson, Deloit, show.

Of the total number of 251 cases, representing 1,200 individuals handled by Supt. Anderson, a total of $10,107 was spent for the 213 cases from Janesville, city and town. The cases and amounts spent in care of poor in other cities and towns in his district are as follows: Burlington, 17 cases, $699.87; Evansville, six, $330.41; Milton town, four, $382.22; Rock, one, $15.55; Porter, two, $48.75; Bradford one, $30.75; Plymouth one, $125.15; students, six, $102.10; office expense and rent and doctors, $490.

In the southern district Supt. Bond said out $11,452.72, but returned $582.77 to county treasury, making a net expenditure of $10,869.95.

20-CENT DROP IN PRICE OF LEMONS

Down to 40 Cents—Southern Fruits Hold Fore on Market Here.

Even for those who can afford the luxury of southern fruits and hot-house vegetables, the present season is a slow one, with little seen in Janesville markets other than the ordinary run. Following the holidays, a pool of three or four weeks always comes when little is obtainable. The last week in January and the first of February are more of the hot-house and southern fruits coming in, to remain until northern products are ripe.

Thus apples, oranges, grapefruit, lemons, bananas, pears, grapes and pineapples form the chief displays in grocery windows here this week. Prices are practically the same with the exception of lemons which have dropped from 60 to 40 cents per dozen. In the summer the price always advances, but this year, for some unknown reason, the price remained high until the past week. Apples range from four pounds for a quarter to 5 cents a pound and 5 cents each. Oranges are from 40 to 75 cents per dozen, most of them being the California variety, with some Florida. Grapefruit is better in quality recently, selling for 5 cents each and three for a quarter. Bananas are 12 cents per pound, pears 30 cents per basket, grapes 25 and 30 cents per pound and pineapples a variety of prices, lowest being a quarter.

String beans are unusual at this time of year, and sell for 10 to 15 cents. Tomatoes, green peppers and cauliflower are the exceptions to the usual line of things in the market, and offer a variety of the Sunday dinner. Other articles such as cranberries, 17 and 19 cents per pound; celery, 12 to 20 cents; head lettuce 10 to 25 cents each; leaf lettuce higher at 40 cents per pound; 20 cents per head; 7 cents per pound; Spanish onions double that price; cabbage, 3 to 4 cents; turnips, 4 and 5 cents per pound; potatoes, 20, 25 and 30 cents per bushel; carrots, 7 cents per pound.

Eggs are now from 48 to 55 cents dozen; strictly fresh, and butter is 53 up to 60 cents per pound.
